Announcing the June High Cotton Market Friday – Sunday, June 2nd – 4th

The Ringgold Feed & Seed High Cotton Market is the largest antique market in the Chattanooga area. This event draws thousands of antique lovers and junk explorers every year. The June market is during the Dixie Hwy 90-Mile Yard sale that stretches from Ringgold, GA to Acworth, GA along Hwy 41.

The event is Free and parking is Free.

Started in 2014, the High Cotton Market was just a small gathering of vendors who had some extra treasures that couldn't fit inside the store and wanted to have a bit of fun selling junk in the parking lot. Now, this event has blossomed into an outdoor antique festival with dealers from all over the Southeast along with 7500 sq feet of fun inside our store with great deals on antiques, vintage and industrial finds. In addition, there is the Cotton Gin Antiques, which shares our parking lot located in the original Calloway Feed & Seed building.
